Consignment Agreement – Trade Alley Art

Potential consigners must submit samples of their work for jurying, according to TAA procedures. Upon acceptance, consigners can display their work beginning the first of the month following jury approval, or as otherwise agreed. Wall space is reserved for members only.

Consigners agree to pay a one-time set up fee of $50, payable to Trade Alley Art. Signage is an additional cash or check fee $25 payable to Rose Mary Cheek. Setup includes signage, allocation of exhibit space, and/or furniture for display.

The consigner will not hold the gallery liable for loss or damage to any artwork they bring in to be consigned. The consigner must keep their own record of inventory for their work.

The Consigner will receive 60% on all works sold.

The gallery is to receive a 40 percent commission on all sales of exhibited work with a maximum of $1000 per item sold.

The gallery reserves the right to terminate the consignment after 6 months, on such bases as lack of sales or insufficient quantity/ quality of work.

The signed form constitutes agreement with the above terms and is to be submitted along with the application to the jury.

It is recommended, but not required, that the work of consigners be refreshed at the times members rotate their work, usually the first Monday of every other month.
